

Climate Sponsorship Opportunities

A cutting-edge source of information about climate change and the measures taken to mitigate its effects.

As climate change becomes a driver for business around the world, climate.bna.com and the Association of Climate Change Officers (ACCO) provide the information and insights that people need to manage the risks and understand the opportunities.

BNA's climate.bna.com is a definitive, go-to Web resource that includes summaries of World Climate Change Report articles, Climapedia™ full text documents from international, federal, state, and non-governmental organizations, press releases, conference and events listings, and special reports by leading experts and BNA editors. BNA's environment, health and safety division currently provides crucial information to more than 4,000 premiere organizations and government entities in the United States and abroad.

The Association of Climate Change Officers (ACCO) is the leading professional association for the advancing the practice of the climate change profession.

ACCO's mission is to advance the knowledge and skills of those dedicated to developing and directing climate change strategies in the public and private sectors, and to establish a flexible and robust forum for collaboration between climate change officers.

Be sure that your message is seen by BNA's readership of leading decisionmakers in corporations, law firms, associations, academia, and the government.
